Pastoral Potpourri

As we stride into a new year we should keep the words "The Lord will provide," deep within our hearts. It reminds us that we can trust God; that He always keeps His promises; and that out of everything which appears to us as loss, God brings hopes and blessings.

None of us have ever journeyed into this new year before. There will be sorrows, joys, failures, and successes - just as there were this past year. We cannot forecast what will be, and neither can we see further ahead than the spot where we place our foot. But God calls us forward with calm trust.

So let us put away all anxiety and foreboding - the Lord will provide. That is all we need to know. I'll see you in church, Stephen
