THANK YOU

A big THANK YOU to everyone who helped make worship throughout Lent and Holy Week very meaningful. The family of Central was deeply blessed by your efforts and contributions.

Pastoral Potpourri

Mark Twain was leaving worship at First Presbyterian Church, Hartford. Suddenly it began to rain. A man next to him asked, "Do you think it will ever stop?" "It always has," Twain replied.

Painful, unpleasant, and difficult situations of life often appear to have no end, but nothing in this world is permanent. Eventually the drought ends; the dark turns into light; winter gives way to spring. No doubt that some problems do cause us to wonder, "Will it ever end?" Never forget: it always has; this too shall pass; and Christ will be with us every moment of the journey. I'll see you in church, Stephen
