Pastoral Potpourri

The man was becoming concerned that his children had severe hearing issues. He observed that their mother yelled, "Clean your room" about 25 times and nothing happened. Then he noticed that when she said, "Make your bed" and "Take out the trash" or "Feed the dog" it was met with the same result - nothing.

In his concern, he was surprised later that same day when his wife semi-quietly said, "Chocolate chip cookies are ready." Up from the basement, down from the 2nd floor, even in from the back yard they all came following this one sedate announcement. Although he was relieved that they apparently were not hearing impaired, he was also confused. Surely they did not hear only what they wanted to hear! He knew that he had not set that type of example.

How often do we exhibit "selective hearing" when we listen to God?
I'll see you in church, Stephen

"April Showers" for Compassion Ministries

Among CPC's ministries is the sponsoring of an apartment for homeless women and children in transition. During the time of their stay they receive counseling, education, and training to better equip them for being self-sufficient. During the month of April we are collecting items which are used to stock the apartment. In the narthex is a display which has sticky notes of non-perishable items needed.

Please feel free to take as many "stickys" as you would like.

Categories include pantry items, cleaning, kitchen, and bathroom supplies.

Woodway Elementary eXtreme Day Volunteers Needed

May 24

CPC continues to support Woodway Elementary. Each school year ends with a celebration of a wonderful year of hard work, great friendship and lots of learning fun. Part of this celebration includes 6 inflatable bounce houses for students and teachers to enjoy. These bounce houses require adults to supervise them and they would appreciate any extra hands to come join in the fun. Six volunteers are needed from 8 am - 11:45 am and an additional 6 volunteers are needed from 11:15 - 2:45. A pizza lunch will be provided for all volunteers. Please let Karen Groman know if you can help.
