Pastoral Potpourri

As the man walked by the boy he noticed that he had a puppy with a "For Sale" sign hanging from it's neck. "How much for your puppy?" the man asked. "$50,000," the boy replied. The man whistled, smiled, and walked on.

A few mornings later the man once again walked by the boy and noticed that the dog was gone. "Sell your dog?" the man asked. "Yes, sir!" the boy replied. "Did you get your asking price?" "Sort of," replied the lad, "But in order to close the deal I had to take a pair of $25,000 cats on trade."

If you want to keep your imagination fresh and your thinking ability limber, spend time around children. Their logic patterns do not fall into such deep, inflexible ruts as do those of adults. That may be one of the reasons why Jesus said, "Let the children come to me, ...for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven."

I'll see you in church, Stephen
