Pastoral Potpourri

The little girl was looking at her mother's egg timer - a small hourglass with sand. Her mother explained that it took the sand exactly 3 minutes to empty, then you turn it over and it does the same thing again. That afternoon, the little girl brought a friend into the kitchen. "See?" she said to her friend as she demonstrated the egg timer. "You run it through like this; then you turn it upside down and you get your 3 minutes back."

Wouldn't it be nice if that really did happen in life? But God has made time a nonrenewable resource. No matter what kind of egg timer you have, you are not ever going to get your 3 minutes back. So let us make good use of every 3 minutes we have in pursuit of our venture with God. I'll see you in church, Stephen

AN EVENING OF KALEIN & KOINONIA

Sunday, June 3 ~ 5 - 8 pm

Kalein is the Greek word meaning "to call" or "to summon". "Koinonia" is the Greek word for "fellowship". On the evening of June 3, we will be doing both. Brought to us by the Christian Education Committee, CPC is gathering on this evening to fellowship and have fun together, but also to learn who God is calling us to be.

What is your most treasured memory of the Church? Not just Central, but from across the years of your being called by Christ into this Fellowship of Saints. That is a very important question, and it relates to "WHY" Central Presbyterian Church exists.

In January, our Session spent a Saturday discovering the "WHY". From that they developed a "WHY" statement which serves as the foundation of all we do going forward. Join us on June 3, at 5 pm, in the Activity Center to learn more about "WHY" and its importance in the life of Central Presbyterian.

Youth Volunteer Needed:

The Youth are looking for a male adult sponsor to go with them to Synod Youth Workshop July 8-14 at Tulsa University. The sponsor will get to participate in a small group without having to lead the group. The sponsor will get to see how the Lord is moving in the youth ministry of our Synod. If interested, please contact Andrew Bryngelson at youth@pcwaco.org

Thank You

I would like to thank the youth and congregation for the amazing opportunity to serve the church as Youth Leader for these past seven years. I have learned so much and received so many blessings from this ministry and I hope the Youth have experienced even more. I want to thank the Youth for the recognition on Sunday. It was a surprise and I'm greatly honored. ---

Woodway Elementary eXtreme Day Volunteers Needed

Part of this celebration includes 6 inflatable bounce houses for students and teachers to enjoy. These bounce houses require adults to supervise them and they would appreciate any extra hands to come join in the fun. Six volunteers are needed from 8 am - 11:45 am and an additional 6 volunteers are needed from 11:15 - 2:45. A pizza lunch will be provided for all volunteers. Please let Karen Groman know if you can help.
