Pastoral Potpourri

If a rotten apple can spoil the whole barrel, why can't you put a good apple in a bunch of rotten ones and have them all turn good?

Once an apple is plucked off the tree, it is beginning to spoil. It may be red and beautiful and juicy, but it has still been torn away from its parent stem. It has been hopelessly separated from its source of life. What is true for apples applies to all fruits and vegetables - and to people. When separated from its source, nothing remains healthy or sound for long. So, how about it, are you staying close to your source? I'll see you in church, Stephen

June 8 - Mission Crafters, 10:30 am

June 12 - Second Tuesday Supper Club, Bella Luna Italian Bistro, 6 pm
- please RSVP to Don Wall 292-3292.

Central's Core Cause

Every organization, as well as each individual person, operates on three levels:

1) What we do; 2) How we do it; 3) Why we do it.

This is also true with churches:

We know WHAT we do: Church; we are the Body of Christ

We know HOW we do it: Our Mission

*welcoming diversity within our church family,
teaching the Gospel's unfolding story,
nurturing spiritual growth,
sharing joyous worship,
and fostering an ethic of service.*

Few can articulate WHY we do it. Our Session has said WHY:

To lovingly serve so that all experience hope and encouragement through the Holy Spirit.

In Our Thoughts and Prayers

Charlie and Lynda Packard, forced to leave their home due to wildfire.

Matt Bierwirth's sister, Margaret, recently diagnosed with cancer.

Anne Stewart's mother, Anne, with her continuing health concerns.

The Pastor Nominating Committee of Central Presbyterian Church.

Celebrating Birthdays

Thad Scott - June 14

Gabby Franks - June 25

(We are missing many birthdays in our database; please let us know yours!
We need the year to enter the date in the database, but will never print it!)

The Weekly News is published each Thursday and sent to members via email. It is also mailed to members who do not have email or desire a printed copy. Printed copies are also available in the church narthex.

Church activities and pertinent event information is available on the church website: cpcwaco.org
