Sermon: What God Hides

Text: Habakkuk 3:1-3, 13

Pastoral Potpourri

The man was a member of my congregation, he owned a small business and was doing quite well. I stopped by his office one day to find him knocking out the back wall of his building. Upon seeing me, he shouted, "I've run out of room and need to expand." He appeared excited as he shared his plans with me for more clients and employees.

As we go through life we need to continually focus on knocking out back walls by always striving to find new ways to increase our services, our ministry, our outreach, our evangelism, our knowledge, and our capabilities.

Life is movement; it is action; it is experimentation; it is growth. Sometimes that leads to mistakes and failures, but more often it leads to something better than could ever have been found within the old walls of previous experiences. Knock out the back wall and see where God sends you.

WHY We Do It

Every single company and organization knows WHAT they do.

Some companies and organizations and people know HOW they do WHAT they do.

Very few companies, or organizations, or individuals can clearly articulate WHY they do WHAT they do.

"To lovingly serve so that all experience hope and encouragement through the Holy Spirit"

is WHY we do WHAT we do.
