Change for Change offering

Pastoral Potpourri

Leo Buscaglia wrote: "I like to see the world as a giant tapestry, with each one of us having responsibility to fill in one little area. Only you can fill that tiny space that is yours. And if you don't assume that responsibility, that tapestry will always be less than what it should have been, and we'll all be worse for it."

Every person, every organization, every church has strengths and weaknesses. Much of what we can do in life depends on which we concentrate on - our strong qualities or our weaker ones. If we concentrate only on our weaknesses, they can hypnotize us into inactivity. But if we focus on our strengths, we are motivated toward effective action.

Central Presbyterian is one of a kind. CPC is unique. "To lovingly serve so that all experience hope and encouragement through the Holy Spirit" is our unique cause in this world. Nobody else can do what we can do - the way we can do it. It is our unique spot in the tapestry. I'll see you in church, Stephen

Making Our Case

Loyalty exists in the brain of the buyer, not the seller. It is hard to make a case to another person that products or services are important in his or her life when you are using factors which you have defined as important. But if your WHY does something that corresponds to their WHY, then the products or services you offer are also important to them.

"To lovingly serve so that all experience hope and encouragement through the Holy Spirit" is our WHY.

We'll distribute a new church directory in August. Please email the church office if your information needs updating:

Celebrating Birthdays

Char Rood - August 16

Randy Boldt - August 17

Mary Ann Thompson - August 22

Robbie Cagle - August 26

(We are missing many birthdays in our database; please let us know yours!
We need the year to enter the date in the database, but will never print it!)

The Weekly News is published each Thursday and sent to members via email. It is also mailed to members who do not have email or desire a printed copy. Printed copies are also available in the church narthex. Church activities and pertinent event information is available on the church website: cpcwaco.org
